Two More Ticks in the Box for SDK-DialAPest

As part of its on-going customer service excellence programme, leading pest control provider, SDK-DialAPest, has now attained the double-tick for 'Positive About Disabled People' and can now display this logo with pride.

SDK-DialAPest is one of the UK's leading domestic pest control providers and has a long, established reputation for promoting equality of service across all facets of the population. Providing professional services to over 20 councils throughout Southern England, SDK-DialAPest works to the highest standards and allies consideration to professionalism to ensure that the public will receive an excellent service at a competitive price at all times.

This latest accolade reflects SDK-DialAPest's commitment to disabled people as an employer and a service provider.

With its offering of discounts for seniors, same-day emergency appointments for wasp-allergy sufferers and next-day appointments as its target standard, SDK-DialAPest continues on its path to providing customer service excellence and giving the UK public a service that is both effective and reliable.
